

The Antall József Knowledge Centre is not related in any way to the Antall József Foundation

– Announcement –

The Antall József Knowledge Centre (AJKC) is not related in any way to the Antall József Foundation (AJF). The two foundations are legally distinct and independent bodies, therefore, their activities are not connected in any way.

The Antall József Knowledge Centre was established in 2009 by Mrs Klára Antall, widow of the late prime minister. In line with the intellectual legacy of József Antall, the work of AJKC revolve around talent management and providing niche education in various fields of science, complemented by its publishing activities.
